Male Swimmer of the Week

Sam McHugh • Tennessee

McHugh won three events in back-to-back road dual meets at Missouri and Virginia, leading the Vols to two wins and a 3-0 (1-0 SEC) start. He is now ranked in the NCAA Top 10 in three events after the weekend: fifth in the 400 IM (3:52.39), ninth in the 200 butterfly (1:47.78) and ninth in the 200 IM (1:49.29). His times in the 200 butterfly and 400 IM were NCAA B-cut standards.

Female Swimmer of the Week

Sarah Gibson • Texas A&M
Junior • San Antonio, Texas

In Texas A&M's win at Kentucky, Gibson earned a first-place finish in the 1000 free (10:02.67), good for 14th place nationally. Additionally, she came in first in the 100 fly (55.03), swam the third leg for the first-place winning 400 free relay team, and finished second in the 200 fly (2:02.82). Overall, Gibson contributed 33 points towards Texas A&M's overall point total.

Male Diver of the Week

Sam Thornton • Texas A&M
Freshman • Baildon,
United Kingdom

In Texas A&M's win at Kentucky, Thornton came in first in the one-meter (383.55) and three-meter (382.20) events, contributing 18 points to A&M's overall total.

Female Diver of the Week

Kahlia Warner • Florida
Senior • Queensland, Australia

Warner swept the one- and three-meter boards while diving to NCAA Diving Standards off all three boards this weekend. Although it was an unscored exhibition, Warner posted the top score off the platform with a mark of 259.58 (season best).

Male Freshman of the Week

Mateo Gonzalez • Texas A&M
Freshman • Torreon, Mexico

In the first meet of his college career, Gonzalez took home three podium finishes. He earned a first-place finish in the 200 IM (1:51.32), and finished second in the 100 fly (49.22) and 200 fly (1:50.25). Gonzalez was responsible for 17 points in A&M's overall total.

Female Freshman of the Week

Sydney Pickrem • Texas A&M Freshman • Dunedin, Fla.

Pickrem got off to a fast start in her college career after a record-breaking summer swimming for Team Canada. She finished in first place in the 200 IM (2:02.18) and the 200 free (1:49.50), adding 18 points towards A&M's overall total.

Team Notes

Alabama: Alabama posted strong showings Oct. 9 in their home and Southeastern Conference opener, tallying wins in three of the four relays and earning eight individual wins on the day against Auburn. The Crimson Tide started the meet off by winning in the men's 200 medley relay in decisive fashion. Juniors Connor Oslin, Pavel Romanov, and Kristian Gkolomeev combined with senior Brett Walsh to beat Auburn by more than two seconds, touching the wall with a 1:24.84. From there, the Tide men and women combined to win eight individual races with eight different swimmers earning victories. The Tide closed the meet with a sweeping of the 200 freestyle relays. Junior Bailey Scott and sophomore Temarie Tomley combined with seniors Justine Panian and Emma Saunders to win the women's relay with a time of 1:36.86 while Howard and junior Alex Gray joined senior Brett Walsh and Gkolomeev to clinch a down-to-the-wire men's race with a time of 1:19.54.

Arkansas: The University of Arkansas swimming and diving team came out victorious in their SEC opener against Kentucky on Oct. 10th. The Razorbacks took first place and third place in the 200 medley relay and first and third place in the 400 free relay. The Razorbacks hosted the Hogs for a Cure Meet in efforts of raising awareness for breast cancer. In the 200 Medley Relay, senior Anna Mayfield lead-off with the fastest backstroke split of the event (25.76). Scoring 162 points to Kentucky's 138, the Razorbacks had five first place finishes, nine second place finishes and nine third place finishes. Junior Aiden Lister placed in the top three in both her individuals, as well as senior Maddie Monroe, junior Natalie Burnett, sophomore Chelsea Tatlow, senior Anna Mayfield, sophomore Chloe Hannam, and senior Nina Drolc. Razorback diving took first, third and fourth place in the 3-meter diving, with sophomore Nicole Gillis winning the competition.

Auburn: Auburn kicked off its dual meet seasons with a sweep at Alabama on Oct. 9 ... The men won a very close meet, 158-142, while the woman swam to a 192-108 victory ... Joe Patching picked up three wins for the men's team, winning the 200 free, 200 back and 400 IM, all in B cut times ... As a team Auburn won nine individual events and picked up 12 B cuts and three Zone Diving Qualifying Scores, with Pete Turnham earning two of them ... On the women's side both Allyx Purcell and Jillian Vitarius won multiple events ... Purcell won the 50- and 100- freestyles while Vitarius won both backstroke events ... As a team Auburn won 11 individual events and one relay and while racking up 13 NCAA B Cuts and three Zone Diving Qualifying Scores ... Auburn returns to dual meet action on Nov. 7 when it plays host to Indiana.

Florida: The University of Florida men's and women's swimming and diving teams squared away in a two-day double-dual against Texas and Indiana inside the Lee & Joe Jamail Texas Swimming Center from Oct. 16-17, in Austin, Texas. Friday night's competition was swum in a long-course 50-meter pool while the three teams competed in a short-course setting on Saturday. The UF men swept an Indiana team which placed 12th a season ago at the NCAA Championships while showcasing a number of strong races against the defending National Champions in Texas. Caeleb Dressel's three-win performance highlighted the weekend for UF. The Green Cove Springs, Florida, native took down former club teammate and defending NCAA 100 Yard butterfly champion, Joseph Schooling, on Friday night, in just one of his three victories over the weekend. On the women's side, the Orange and Blue had a strong showing against a pair of 2015 NCAA Top-10 finishers in Texas and Indiana, despite finishing on the wrong end of both duals on Friday and Saturday. Kahlia Warner dominated the diving events -- sweeping both the one and three meters on Friday night with a pair of NCAA Diving Standards. Senior Natalie Hinds added to the success with a quartet of wins throughout the two-day event.

Georgia: Georgia swept North Carolina at Gabrielsen Natatorium in the season opener for both schools on Oct. 10 ... The Lady Bulldogs posted a 152-148 decision, while the Bulldogs coasted to a 170-125 victory. ... The Lady Bulldogs extended their UGA all-sports record with their 95th straight win at home. The streak began Nov. 8, 1995. ... Georgia's women also have won 14 consecutive season openers. ... Coach Jack Bauerle-coached teams are now 40-4 all-time against North Carolina – 22-0 for the women and 18-4 for the men. ... Georgia will return to action Oct. 30 at Florida in a long course meters meet.

Kentucky: Kentucky dropped a pair of SEC matchups on Wednesday, Oct. 14, with both the men and women falling to Texas A&M in the season home opener. The men fought a close battle with the Aggies, falling 155-145, while the women suffered a 179-121 setback. The men won 7-of-16 events along with two ties for the fastest times. Kyle Higgins picked up two wins in the butterfly races, notching his first NCAA B cut with a 1:47.94 victory in the 200 fly and was just half a second off the consideration mark in the 100 fly in 48.99 seconds. Higgins currently holds the 11th-fastest time in the NCAA in the 200 fly. Sean Gunn won the 100 free in 45.08 seconds over A&M's Jacob Gonzales, winning the third matchup between the two as Gunn and Gonzales tied for the 50 free in 20.63 seconds and both anchored the 200 medley relays that tied in 1:31.08. Andrew Aviotti led a sweep in the 1000 free, touching in at 9:15.72 for the 16th-fastest time in the nation, and Isaac Jones also had a top-25 time in the 200 free, winning in 1:38.84 for 25th in the NCAA. Jones also won the 500 free, touching in at 4:32.64. The men ended the meet with a win in the 400 free relay in 3:02.47, the 21st-fastest mark in the event this year, but were unable to catch up to the Aggies. On the women's side, the Wildcats won five events throughout the afternoon. Danielle Galyer swept the backstroke races, winning the 100 back in 54.13 seconds and the 200 back in 1:56.85 to remain undefeated in both events this year. Kendra Crew notched her first B cut of the season, winning the 200 breast in 2:15.83 for a time that currently ranks 25th in the NCAA, while also placing runner-up in the 100 breast in 1:03.56. Freshman Haley McInerney won her second 200 fly title of her career, clocking in at 2:01.39, but dropped a close 100 fly race in 55.21 seconds. The final victory came from Rebeca Hamperian in the 3-meter dive with 300.68 points, while she also took second on the 1-meter springboard with 280.65 points. Though not winning times, Kendal Casey's 10:05.09 in the 1000 free ranks 17th among national competition, and the 200 medley relay mark of 1:42.77 is good for 22nd.

LSU: The LSU swimming and diving team won 15 of 16 events to open the 2015-16 season with a 210-86 win over Tulane Oct. 9 at the LSU Natatorium. Five LSU divers earned zone qualifying scores to open the season. LSU swept the springboard events with victories by Allie Alter on one-meter (282.30) and Cassie Weil on three-meter (351.23). Freshman Rileigh Knox earned a second-place finish on three-meter (294.53) and Alter also finished third (290.40). Weil (281.70) and Madison Sthamann (271.65) added second and third place finishes on one-meter. Swimmers Megan Cox and Kara Kopcsó each won two events to pace the Lady Tigers. Cox took first in the 100 free with a time of 50.55 and the 200 fly with a time of 2:02.70. Kopcsó earned victories in the 200 free (1:48.36) and 200 IM. Her time of 2:01.14 in the 200 IM is tied for the fastest in the country. Freshman Haylee Knight earned her first collegiate victory in the 100 back with a time of 56.19. Devon Dabney (500 free), Danielle Stirrat (200 back), Colleen O'Neil (100 breast), Taryn MacKenzie (200 breast), Jane MacDougall (1000 free) and Leah Troskot (50 free) also earned victories for LSU. The entire squad returns to training over the next three weeks before traveling to Arizona to take on Northern Arizona and Wyoming October 30-31.

Missouri: The Mizzou men's swimming and diving team opened Southeastern Conference action with a 164-136 loss to Tennessee on Oct. 15. The Tigers won six events on the day, including a 50 and 100 free sweep from junior Michael Chadwick. Following the meet, Chadwick ranks second nationally in the 100 free (43.48) and fifth in the 100 free (20.09). Also ranked nationally is junior Fabian Schwingenschlogl, who comes in fourth in the 100 breast (54.19) and sixth in the 200 breast (1:59.34). The Mizzou women's swimming and diving team were busy last week with a dual at Tennessee on Oct. 15 and competition at the two-day SMU Classic Oct. 15-16 in Lewisville, Texas. The Tigers won seven events, including two from redshirt senior Abby Duncan (100 breast and 200 breast). Missouri then tied for second at the SMU Classic in a meet that saw fast times throughout. After the weekend, five different Tigers ranks in the top-10 nationally in their respective events: Duncan (200 breast-second; 100 breast-third; 200 IM-seventh), junior Katharine Ross (100 breast-second; 200 breast-third; 200 IM-eighth); junior Nadine Laemmler (100 back-fifth; 400 IM-sixth); sophomore Sharli Brady (200 fly-second; 500 free-seventh; 400 IM-10th) and Hannah Stevens (100 back-sixth).

South Carolina: The South Carolina Swimming and Diving team opened the 2015-16 season with strong showing at the FGCU Classic Oct. 3. The Gamecock men claimed the title while the women's squad finished in third place. Sophomore Akram Mahmoud won all three of his individual events (200 and 500 freestyle and 200 butterfly) over the two-day meet. Senior Kevin Leithold and sophomore Nils Wich-Glasen and Tomas Peribonio all added wins for the Gamecocks. On the women's side sophomore Taylor Worrell took first place in the 500 freestyle. South Carolina's freshmen class made a splash in their debut for the Garnet and Black. Paige Maynard won both the 100 and 200 butterfly while Cody Bekemeyer added a pair of first place finishes in the consolation finals of the 400 IM and 500 freestyle. The Gamecock men open South Carolina's home slate when they host Purdue on Oct. 24 at the Blatt P.E. Center/Carolina Natatorium.

Tennessee: The Tennessee Volunteers had a big weekend of travel with meets at Missouri and Virginia on back-to-back days. The UT men swept both matches to improve to 3-0 (1-0 SEC) this season, while the UT women defeated Missouri and lost to Virginia to move their record to 2-1 (1-0 SEC). Sophomore Sam McHugh led the Vols with six individual wins over the weekend. His times in the 200 fly, 200 IM and 400 IM all rank in the top 10 nationally with his 200 fly time of 1:47.78 placing fifth. Sean Lehane recorded the fastest 200 backstroke time of the season (1:43.41). Reigning SEC Diver of the Year Mauricio Robles won three of his four events. For the women, sprinter Faith Johnson led the way, picking up wins in the 50 and 100 freestyle at Missouri. Her time of 22.81 in the 50 free ranks sixth. Freshman Madeline Banic won the 100 butterfly at Missouri and Virginia.

Texas A&M: Multiple individual victories by a trio of Texas A&M underclassmen boosted the Aggie men's swimming and diving team to a 155-145 season-opening victory over Kentucky on Oct. 14 at the Lancaster Aquatic Center. Sophomores Brock Bonetti and Mauro Castillo both swept the 100- and 200-yard versions of their specialties – the backstroke and breaststroke, respectively – and swam a leg on the winning 200-yard medley relay, while freshman diver Sam Thornton was victorious in both springboard dives to spark the Aggies. The men return to action on Friday, Oct. 30 with a 6 p.m. dual meet against Incarnate Word at the Student Recreation Natatorium on the A&M campus.

The Texas A&M women's swimming and diving team rolled to a 179-121 road victory over Kentucky in its 2015-16 season-opener. The Aggies opened and closed out the meet with victories in the relays. The foursome of sophomore Lisa Bratton, junior Sycerika McMahon, sophomore Beryl Gastaldello and sophomore Kristin Malone opened the meet with a victory in the 200-yard medley relay in a time of 1:41.65, and the quartet of freshman Lexie Lupton, senior Claire Brandt, junior Sarah Gibson and Gastaldello finished the day with a win in the 400 free relay in a time of 3:28.20. In between the relays, the Aggies were victorious in nine of 14 events with a trio of Aggies winning multiple races. Gibson won the 1,000 freestyle in 10:02.67 and the 100 butterfly in 55.03; McMahon grabbed wins in the 100 breast in 1:02.25 and the 500 free in 4:53.98; and freshman Sydney Pickrem won the 200 free in 1:49.50 and the 200 IM in 2:02.18. Grabbing solo individual victories for the Aggies were junior diver Madison Hudkins in the one-meter dive with a score of 306.38, Lupton in the 50 free in 23.23 and senior Meredith Oliver in the 100 free in 51.01. The women return to action on Oct. 23 when they begin a four-meet home stand with a 3 p.m. dual meet against North Texas at the Student Recreation Natatorium.

Vanderbilt: The Vanderbilt swim team made a splash in its first away meet of the 2015-16 season, defeating the Oregon State Beavers, but falling to San Diego State on Oct. 15. Sophomore Kara Lucenti had a great meet for the `Dores, taking first place in the 200 breaststroke (2:20.26) and 200 IM (2:06.18). Lucenti's time of 2:26.15 in the 200 breast was the eighth fastest time ever recorded at the Aztec Aquaplex. Vanderbilt had an incredibly strong showing in the 100 Butterfly as the `Dores swept the podium with Breanna Sapienza taking first place (55.39), followed by Kayla Moran at second (55.43) and Rachel Koch at third (56.15). The Vanderbilt swim team wrapped up their fall break in California with a competitive showing against the University of San Diego Toreros, but falling in a close 127-104 loss on Oct. 16. The Commodores started the meet off on the right note, taking the 400 Medley Relay. Johanna Goldblatt, Kathryn Coughlin, Sapienza and Moran earned the squad valuable points swimming in at a time of 3:52.904. On Oct. 24, the Dores will take on the Tulane Green Wave at 11 a.m. CT.
