Male Swimmer of the Week

Jan Switkowski • Florida
Sophomore • Lublin, Poland

Switkowski swam to four first-place finishes and a U.S. Olympic Trials-qualifying time against Florida State on Jan. 2. He finished first in the 200 fly (2:01.30) and 400 free (4:01.54) and was a part of the first-place 400 medley relay (3:47.58) and 400 free relay (3:25.18). The Lublin, Poland, product tallied 40 points for the Gators as the men's team scored a 188-109 win over the 24th-ranked Seminoles.

Female Swimmer of the Week

Hali Flickinger • Georgia
Senior • Spring Grove, Pa.

In Georgia's wins at No. 5 Texas A&M and No. 6 Texas, Flickinger won six individual events and was on two victorious relays. In the win at Texas A&M, she took the 100- and 200-yard backstroke in 53.46 and 1:53.66, respectively, and won the 200-yard individual medley in 1:57.22. Flickinger also anchored the 400-yard freestyle relay that won in 3:19.78. Less than 24 hours later in Austin, she won the 200-yard freestyle (1:46.14), the 200-yard butterfly (1:55.93) and the 200-yard backstroke (1:53.23). Flickinger again anchored the 400-yard freestyle relay that won in 3:17.54. Flickinger holds the nation's top times in the 200-yard freestyle and the 200-yard butterfly, and she is No. 3 in the 500-yard freestyle and No. 6 in the 200-yard backstroke.

Male Diver of the Week

Seb Masterton • Kentucky
Freshman • Reading, England

Masterton was instrumental in the Wildcats' first SEC dual victory in seven years. The British product won all three of his disciplines over LSU, along with two wins over Virginia Tech. In the 1-meter dive, he notched 299.15 points to finish third to the Hokies but win over LSU. From there, Masterton took the overall win in the 1-meter dive with 373.80 points, a score that would stand at fifth in UK's all-time laurels had Masterton not previously secured the spot. He went on to clinch a tight victory over VT's Logan Stevens in the platform dive, with a final score of 337.80. His score is a new personal best, and ranks fourth on UK's all-time platform list.

Female Diver of the Week

Kahlia Warner • Florida
Senior • Queensland, Australia

Warner led the Florida divers against Florida State on Jan. 2, posting wins off both the one (319.00) and three-meter (348.98) boards. She totaled 18 points for the Gators.

Male Freshman of the Week

Angel Martinez • Texas A&M
Freshman • San Nicolás de los Garza, Mexico

Martinez earned a first-place finish in the 500 free (4:33.55) against Missouri State on Jan. 7. The next day against Georgia, he took second in the 200 free (1:40.02), fourth in the 200 IM (1:52.31) and was a part of the third-place 400 free relay (3:04.79).

Female Freshman of the Week

Hannah Burns • Florida
Freshman • Lake City, Fla.

Burns shined in Florida's 200-93 win over Florida State on Jan. 2, swimming to a pair of wins and a second-place finish to total 24 points. She took first in the 200 breaststroke (2:41.11) and was a part of the winning 400 medley relay (4:29.25) while earning a second-place finish in the 100 breaststroke (1:15.48). In addition, Burns exhibition time ranked second overall in the 200-meter IM.

Team Notes

Alabama: The Alabama swimming and diving teams posted strong showings Saturday morning at home to finish off a two-day, long-course meet against Southeastern Conference rival Tennessee. The Crimson Tide men beat the Volunteers in a down-to-the-wire showdown, 164.5-154.5, after trailing by three points heading into the final event. The Tide women fell to the Volunteers, 199-120. Sophomore Christopher Reid picked up the Tide's first win of the morning with a 26.80 in the 50m backstroke. Reid went on to swim a 2:04.37 in the men's 200m backstroke for his second first-place finish of the day. Alabama then swept the 50m breaststroke. Junior Bridget Blood swam a 33.86 in the women's race while freshman Emma Murray in second with a 34.24. Junior Pavel Romanov took top honors in the men's race, clocking in at 28.33. Junior Kristian Gkolomeev won the men's 100m freestyle, touching the wall at 51.03. Senior Emma Saunders took top honors in the women's 200m backstroke, swimming a 2:20.75. Blood led a top-three sweep of the women's 200m breaststroke with a 2:40.39, followed by senior Stephanie Klotz at 2:41.02 and freshman Justine Macfarlane at 2:41.13. Junior Anton McKee clinched a tight win in the men's 200m breaststroke with a 2:19.00. Sophomore Mia Nonnenberg picked up the Tide's final individual victory of the day, winning the women's 200m individual medley with a 2:20.10. The Tide finished the meet with a decisive win in a heated, meet-deciding men's 400m freestyle relay. Freshman Robert Howard and junior Alex Gray joined Wellford and Gkolomeev to win the relay in 3:25.30. The Tide men's 'B' relay of freshman Knox Auerbach, sophomores Mathew Adams and Will Freeman and Reid helped secure the team's overall victory by taking second in the event with a time of 3:29.56.

Arkansas: Ten Razorback swimmers competed at the 2015 AT&T Winter National Championships at the Weyerhaeuser King County Aquatic Center in Federal Way, Wash. on Dec. 3-5th. Chloe Hannam and Madison Strathman earned Olympic Trial Cuts for their swims on Saturday. Hannam kicked off the morning session for Arkansas swimming in the 200 backstroke. She raced to a time of 2:16.11 earning her Olympic trials cut. Her performance earned her a spot in the bonus finals. She finished second in the bonus finals heat in a time of 2:14.16. Hannam dropped almost two seconds in the 200 backstroke. Strathman was outstanding for the Razorbacks as well. She competed in the 200 breaststroke time trial and was under the Olympic trials cut with a time of 2:34.77. Sydney Angell and Mary Margaret Soderberg also competed with Strathman in the 200 breaststroke. Angell finished in 3:41.92 and Soderberg finished in 2:43.24. Senior Maddie

Monroe and sophomore Caitlin Tootill raced hard in the 100 freestyle in 57.42 and 59.59 seconds. Jessie Garrison went 2:16.28 in the prelims of the 200 butterfly to advance to the bonus finals. In the finals, she went a time of 2:16.20. Aiden Lister had an exceptional last day of competition. She finished 12th overall in the 800 freestyle in 8:47.51. The Razorbacks return to competition on Jan. 15, 2016 at Auburn.

Auburn: Peter Holoda did all he could to put his team on his back in the dual meet against top-ranked Texas ... The sophomore from Hungary, who completed but did not place at last year's NCAA Championships, won the 50- and 100-freestyles in the dual meet against top-ranked Texas, winning the 50 free in 20.10, .06 faster than second place and the 100 free in 44.51, .64 faster than second place ... He also swam the second leg for the winning 200 free relay team in 19.68, the fastest leg of any relay team and anchored the 200 medley relay team to a second-place finish with a 19.14 split, best in the field ... Auburn fell in the men's meet, 156-136, and in the women's meet, 171-121 ... Auburn returns to action this weekend in a women's only meet, playing host to Arkansas on Friday.

Florida: The fourth-ranked University of Florida men's and 11th-ranked women's swimming and diving teams swept the Florida State Seminoles on Jan. 2, inside the Stephen C. O'Connell Center in Gainesville, Florida. The men's team scored a 188-109 win over the 24th-ranked Seminoles while the 11th-ranked Florida women registered a 200-93 victory. The Gators will be back in action on Jan. 23, when the Auburn men's and women's swimming and diving teams travel to Gainesville for an 11 a.m. ET long-course matchup. The meet will mark Florida's final home meet of the season where UF seniors will be honored prior to the start of the meet.

Georgia: The Georgia swimming and diving teams opened the 2016 portion of their schedule on Friday by sweeping Texas A&M at the Aggies' Student Recreation Center. The No. 3 Bulldogs dispatched Texas A&M 178-122, while the No. 2 Lady Bulldogs posted a 163.5-136.5 decision over the No. 5 Lady Aggies. Kevin Litherland won twice for the Bulldogs, claiming the 200-yard freestyle in 1:38.62 and the 500-yard freestyle in 4:29.22. Hali Flickinger and Brittany MacLean paced the Lady Bulldogs with three individual wins each. Flickinger took the 100- and 200-yard backstroke in 53.46 and 1:53.66, respectively, and won the 200-yard individual medley in 1:57.22. MacLean had an impressive back-to-back showing as she won the 1,000-yard freestyle in 9:41.60 and the 200-yard freestyle in 1:47.47, then later took the 500-yard freestyle in 4:47.47. The women remained undefeated on the season with a 155-145 victory over No. 6 Texas on Saturday at the Lee and Joe Jamail Texas Swimming Center. The Lady Bulldogs improved to 7-0 and are now 29-0-1 in their last 30 meets. The No. 3 Bulldogs dropped a 170-125 decision to No. 1 Texas. Georgia is now 6-1 on the year. Flickinger was a triple winner for the Lady Bulldogs, taking the 200-yard freestyle (1:46.14), the 200-yard butterfly (1:55.93) and the 200-yard backstroke (1:53.23). Olivia Smoliga and MacLean each won twice to take care of the rest of the freestyle races. Smoliga claimed the 50 in 22.80 and the 100 in 49.80, while MacLean took the 500 in 4:42.74 and the 1,000 in 9:38.35. Georgia's teams will return to action Saturday, Jan. 23, at Gabrielsen Natatorium against Tennessee. The Lady Bulldogs will be gunning for the program's 100th victory at home. They are 99-1 since Gabrielsen Natatorium opened in 1995.

Kentucky: Kentucky's men picked up their first SEC dual win since Jan. 17, 2009, with a 198-188 victory over LSU. The Wildcats dropped their second dual of the meet to Virginia Tech, 209-180. Overall, the men had 12 event victories against LSU and eight against VT. Freshman diver Seb Masterton had a dominant weekend, winning the overall title in both platform (337.80) and 3-meter (373.80), while he also finished first against LSU on the 1-meter springboard (294.45). His platform score is a career best and stands at fourth on UK's all-time list, while his 3-meter score is just under his personal record that stands at fifth all-time. Andrew Aviotti and Kyle Higgins both secured wins over both LSU and VT in the 1650 free (15:23.28) and 200 fly (1:47.12), respectively, with both swimmers swimming NCAA B cuts. The 800 free relay lineup of Sean Gunn, Scott Crosthwaite, Higgins and Isaac Jones also picked up an overall win in 6:40.14. The UK women dropped a pair of duals in a tri meet against LSU and Virginia Tech. Against the No. 24 Tigers, the Wildcats fell 237.5-151.5. The Hokies came away with a 209-180 victory. Kentucky had five overall victories over both LSU and VT. Danielle Galyer swept the backstroke events, winning the 100 back (54.71) and the 200 back (1:56.88), both in NCAA B cut times. In the 200 back, Bridgette Alexander finished runner-up overall, also recording a B cut of 1:58.46. Kendal Casey had an overall win in the 500 free in 4:53.68. Kathryn Painter was just half a second off a B cut with her win in the 400 IM, leading the field in 4:19.64. Rebecca Hamperian added the final overall title with a win on the 1-meter springboard with 299.70 points.

LSU: The LSU Swimming and Diving team traveled to Lexington, Kentucky Jan. 8-9 to compete against the Wildcats and Virginia Tech. The No. 24 women's team improved to 8-0 with dominating wins over No. 23 Kentucky and Virginia Tech. Senior diver Cassie Weil tallied her eighth and ninth victories of the season in Kentucky. Weil started things off with a victory on three-meter and won platform during the final day of competition. In addition to Weil, senior Allie Alter finished second on one-meter and sophomore Madison Sthamann finished second on platform for the Lady Tigers. Junior Kara Kopcsó dominated the two-day meet for the women. Individually, Kopcsó swept the fly events and touched the wall first in the 200 IM. The Mandeville, Louisiana native was also a part of the relay teams that won the 200 medley, 400 medley and 800 free. Fellow junior Leah Troskot also came up big for the women as she finished first in every event entered. Troskot touched the wall first in the 50 free and 100 free. Troskot was also a part of five victorious relay teams. The men's team dropped meets to both Virginia Tech and Kentucky. Thomas Smith had yet another strong meet in his freshman year. Smith finished first in the 200 back with a time of 1:45.54. Smith also finished second and third overall in the 100 back and 200 IM respectively. Junior Logan Rysemus earned the win over Kentucky in the 100 fly and led the Tigers in a 1-2-3 finish in the 100 back. The entire squad returns to competition Thursday at 1 p.m. against Missouri.

Missouri: The Mizzou men's swimming and diving team claimed the Tennessee Invite team title with 1283.5 points, more than 250 points ahead of the second-place finisher. Over the three-day meet, the Tigers set seven school records and notched seven NCAA automatic qualifying times. Junior Michael Chadwick led the way with three personal best times in the 50 free (19.17), 100 free (41.89) and 200 free (1:34.38), all of which broke Mizzou records and two of which (50 and 100 free) were good enough for NCAA A cuts. Additionally, his 41.89 in the 100 free stands as the top time in the nation this year and his 19.17 in the 50 free ranks second nationally. Junior Fabian Schwingenschlogl won both the 100 and 200 breast in time of 51.36 and 1:53.64, respectively. The 100 breast time was an NCAA A cut and broke Mizzou's all-time record in the event. Mizzou also notched NCAA A cuts in the 200 free, 400 free, 200 medley and 400 medley relays.

The Mizzou women's swimming and diving team tied for second as a team at the Tennessee Invite last weekend. The Tigers set four school records and five NCAA automatic qualifying times over the three-day meet. Redshirt senior

Abby Duncan tallied NCAA A cuts and personal best times of 58.83 in the 100 free and 2:07.02 in the 200 breast, the latter of which was a new school mark and stands as the fastest in the nation this season. Junior Katharine Ross went 58.63 in the 100 breast to break her own Tiger record and notch an A cut. Additionally, sophomore Kira Zubar broke Mizou's 500 and 1650 school records with personal best swims of 4:42.52 in the 500 and 16:18.64 in the 1650.

South Carolina: The South Carolina men and women returned to the pool with a dual meet against Duke on Friday, Jan. 8. The men fell to the 22nd-ranked Blue Devils, 154-146, while the women fell, 187-113. Despite the setbacks, the Gamecocks had plenty of positives from the meet. The Carolina men had nine event victories, while the women's squad posted nine. Nils Wich-Glasen led Carolina with three wins, capturing both breaststroke events and the 200 IM. Jordan Gotro won both men's diving events, while Cody Bekemeyer (100 free), Kevin Leithold (200 free), Fynn Mintuh (200 fly) and Akaram Mahmoud (500 free) each won a single event. For the women's Julia Vincent was victorious in both diving events, while Kersten Dirrane took the victory in both the 200 breast and the 200 IM, her first wins of the season. Freshman Emma Barksdale had perhaps the most impressive swim of the night, winning the 100 free in a time of 9:51.14. The time was just one second slower than a 25-year old Carolina program record, and it also ranks as the ninth-fastest time in collegiate swimming this season. The Gamecock women return to the pool Saturday for a dual meet with Vanderbilt, while both teams are back in action for a quad meet with Queens, Wingate and UNC Wilmington to be held Jan. 22-23 at the Carolina Natatorium.

Tennessee: The Tennessee Volunteers returned to competition in 2016, starting with the Georgia Diving Invitational and the Alabama dual meet. Senior Mauricio Robles picked up where he left off in the fall, winning both springboard competitions at UGA and placing third on platform. Freshman Rachel Rubadue won the platform title and both divers' scores gave UT wins on both springboards in the Alabama dual meet. Senior Harper Bruens starred for Tennessee in the Vols' return to the pool. She won four individual swimming events (50m free, 100m free, 50m fly, 100m fly) and was part of two winning relays. The Vols race again Jan. 23 in a dual meet at Georgia.

Texas A&M: The Texas A&M men's swimming and diving team suffered its first loss of the season with a 178-122 outcome against the No. 3-ranked Georgia Bulldogs on Friday at the Student Recreation Natatorium. The Aggies fell to 5-1 in dual meet action in 2015-16. The Aggies return to action in two weeks when they head to Baton Rouge, La., for a dual meet against LSU on Jan. 23. The Aggies won four events on the day with freshman diver Sam Thornton leading the way with a pair of wins. Thornton, from Baildon, United Kingdom, swept the one- and three-meter dives with scores of 387.30 in the one-meter and 415.81 in the three-meter. Also tallying individual victories were sophomores Mauro Castillo and Brock Bonetti. Castillo was victorious in the 200-yard breaststroke in a time of 1:58.72, while Bonetti touched first in the 200 backstroke in a time of 1:45.02.

The Texas A&M women's swimming and diving team posted a clean sweep of all 16 events in today's 159.5-114.5 victory over SMU on Senior Day at the Student Recreation Natatorium. Leading the way for the Aggies with two individual victories against the Mustangs were junior Madison Hudkins, sophomore Beryl Gastaldello and sophomore Jorie Caneta. Hudkins posted a diving sweep for the second straight day with victories in the one-meter dive (318.52) and three-meter dive (career-best 370.20). Hudkins' three-meter score made her the No. 2 performer in the dive in school history. Gastaldello tallied victories in the 100 free (50.00) and the 100 butterfly (53.55) and also swam legs on both winning relays. Caneta swept the 100 breaststroke (1:01.71) and the 200 breast (2:15.65).

Vanderbilt: The Vanderbilt swim team began its second half of the season on the right note, as the team placed first in every race en route to defeat the Little Rock Trojans; 211-68. The Commodores are now 5-0 in the pool against Little Rock, with wins coming in consecutive seasons. On top of taking first in every race, VU generated five podium sweeps, the most generated in one meet this season. The 'Dores clinched first, second and third in the 50 back, 100 fly, 100 breast, 50 fly and the 100 IM. VU's fly group continued to excel, as both events were swept, with sophomore record holder Breanna Sapienza taking first in each event. Johanna Goldblatt secured her second collegiate first-place victory, taking the top spot in the 50 back at a time of 28.00. One event later, sophomore Kara Lucenti earned first in the 50 breast, coming in at 31.22. Summer Brown, Madeline Hunt, Kayla Moran, Goldblatt, Lucenti and Sapienza all earned two first-place finishes in individual events, and helped Vanderbilt earn relay victories either in the 100 medley relay (Goldblatt, Coughlin, Sapienza, Moran) at 49.21 or the 100 free-style relay (Sapienza, Goldblatt, Hunt, Brown) coming in at 44.63. The Commodores next meet will be on Jan. 16th at home against South Carolina.
