

1 friend's condo again." What's "it"?

2 A. I was referring to what he was saying.

3 Q. All right. And you weren't challenging what "it" was, did
4 you? You didn't say --

5 A. I didn't have to challenge something that's not true.

6 Q. Well, I absolutely would challenge something that's not
7 true.

8 A. Well, that's you, sir. That's not me. I was just concerned
9 with who would make these threatening phone calls. What you do
10 and what I do are totally two different things.

11 Q. And in fact, what you're concerned about is trying to buy
12 your way out of it.

13 A. Absolutely not. That's not the truth at all.

14 Q. Well, the rest -- one of the things that you indicated on 15 that very same conversation is convincing people to lie to 16 protect you.

17 A. Absolutely not true.

18 Q. Okay. Well, page 25 of the transcript: "You and I, you and 19 I can deny that it ever happened. We, it wasn't me. We can
20 deny it but this guy knows. So how can we deny it?" This guy
21 knows that you raped her.

22 A. No, it had nothing to do with rape.

23 Q. Why are you asking her -- then if it has nothing to do with 24 rape, then what are you asking her to deny?

25 A. The sexual contact.
