Terminal Tackle

Your customers are certain to be impressed with the latest terminal tackle options.

MagWeights

Bullet Weights

MagWeights are bullet-shaped but have a strong magnet at the bottom that makes the sinker stick to the eyelets of most hooks. The sinkers come in natural or black colors and sizes from 1/8 to 1/2 ounce.

» www.bulletweights.com; 800-872-0131

Trolling Sinker

Bullet Weights

The oblong sinker with a metal eyelet on each end now has a snap and chain on one end to allow anglers to change bait rigs without retying. The weights are offered in 1/2- to 5-ounce sizes.

» www.bulletweights.com; 800-872-0131

Swim Bait Hook

Bayou Outdoors

The company did a smart thing by taking the popular, strong 8/0 Mustad Big Mouth Tube hook and adding weight (1/8, 1/4 and 3/8 ounce) to the shank. (The company also sells a swimbait hook based on the 8/0 Mustad 91768.)

Gary's Swim Jig

Gary Yamamoto Custom Baits

An in-line eye, straight shank hook makes this jighead different. Designed to be fished with the Yamamoto Swimming Senko, the jighead comes cleanly through grass and is available in 3/0, 4/0 and 5/0 sizes, with weights ranging from 1/16 to 5/16 ounce.

» www.baits.com

Shaky Hook

Falcon Lures

Created as a weedless presentation, the weighted hook has a wire keeper to keep worms straight. Besides shaky fishing, the hook is also ideal for swimming worms or pitching and flipping soft plastics. It's available in 1/8, 3/16, 1/4 and 5/16 ounce.
